This kind of curiosity is about more than enjoyment. It's the kind that drives us past enjoyment that?

organized household but also to a

If it rains, we'll move into Parish Hall.

enough tables/stuff to sell to offset the cost.

forward" to help balance our budget and enable FP to give more generously to the wider

On

Parish has an opportunity for you!

have gathered "stuff" we no longer need, that do

Kondo?  Working your way through

Art of Decluttering and Organizing and join the conversation about this provocative topic.

Jim Poage will facilitate. He wrote discussed.

Another example is from Corey Mandell who coaches Hollywood scriptwriters on techniques he and your audience. There will be exercises to experiment with approaches medium you work. It will include heightening ideas so that they excite you

Parish. We will explore generating ideas for creative endeavors in whatever

All are welcome to a

May 24th.

September 1st, with an opening reception on Sunday, June 9th at 4pm.

Lynne Yansen

Tickets are $25/general, $20/senior, $10/student and can be purchased by

Maggie Cole, fortepiano; Susanna Ogata, violin; Jenny Stirling, viola; Timothy Merton, cello.

Performance includes two string trios by Mozart based on original subjects composed by J.S.

arrangement…"

With just over a decade left to stop the worst of the climate crisis, voters deserve to know the

focused debate will let us hear the details behind the talking points.

Candidates like Elizabeth Warren, Jay Inslee, Beto O'Rourke and Bernie Sanders have already

Climate change has emerged as one of the top issues for Democratic voters in the 2020 election.

Our delegates, Connee Counts, Lew Counts, Elaine Hylek, and Lee Jeffers Brami, will be

staff, and also to learn more about work being done at the Urban Ministry.

and Rev. Mary Margaret Earl, the Senior Minister of UUUM, invited us to

All are welcome to join the First Parish delegates on

Saturday, June 15, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Candela De Amorrortu, a Lexington High School senior and LYFS Board Member, will speak about

(LYFS), a free accessible after-school counseling center and one of First Parish's partners.

There will be Sunday school classes for grades Pre-K through eight. The nursery will be open for

Tired." For the centering music, Rip Jackson will play J. S. Bach's organ arrangement of the lyrical Universalist as it is to be persistent, courageous, and curious." Preaching explore the thoughts of Charles Magistro, who said "I'm amused by the view that?" I am also a persistent and curious person who thinks that?

With that premise in mind, I ask you to consider what it would mean to be a people of

For Unitarian Universalists, curiosity with consequences drives us to constantly another type of curiosity that leads to consequences, that changes us.

The Soul Matters topic for May is "What does it mean to be a people of

Education, Legislative Program and News:

This year our education, legislative program to First Parish. Climate change is not going

any medium)

Calling All Artists

The First Parish is excited to announce our first annual Flea Market. This event will take place on Saturday, June 15, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM. There is no cost to participate and no application is necessary; however, commercial entities are discouraged. All tips will benefit Community Initiatives.

We invite all artists who are members

more creative: June 2nd, 3rd, and 9th, 10am-4pm, also June 15th, 9am-12pm.

Get your Flea Market table by emailing coordinators

Another example is from Corey Mandell who coaches Hollywood scriptwriters on techniques he and your audience. There will be exercises to experiment with approaches

medium you work. It will include heightening ideas so that they excite you

Parish. We will explore generating ideas for creative endeavors in whatever

All are welcome to a

May 24th.

September 1st, with an opening reception on Sunday, June 9th at 4pm.

Lynne Yansen

 Tickets are $25/general, $20/senior, $10/student and can be purchased by

Maggie Cole, fortepiano; Susanna Ogata, violin; Jenny Stirling, viola; Timothy Merton, cello.

Performance includes two string trios by Mozart based on original subjects composed by J.S.

arrangement…"

With just over a decade left to stop the worst of the climate crisis, voters deserve to know the

focused debate will let us hear the details behind the talking points.

Candidates like Elizabeth Warren, Jay Inslee, Beto O'Rourke and Bernie Sanders have already

Climate change has emerged as one of the top issues for Democratic voters in the 2020 election.

Our delegates, Connee Counts, Lew Counts, Elaine Hylek, and Lee Jeffers Brami, will be

staff, and also to learn more about work being done at the Urban Ministry.

and Rev. Mary Margaret Earl, the Senior Minister of UUUM, invited us to

All are welcome to join the First Parish delegates on

Saturday, June 15, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM

Candela De Amorrortu, a Lexington High School senior and LYFS Board Member, will speak about

(LYFS), a free accessible after-school counseling center and one of First Parish's partners.

There will be Sunday school classes for grades Pre-K through eight. The nursery will be open for

Tired." For the centering music, Rip Jackson will play J. S. Bach's organ arrangement of the lyrical Universalist as it is to be persistent, courageous, and curious." Preaching

explore the thoughts of Charles Magistro, who said "I'm amused by the view that?" I am also a persistent and curious person who thinks that?

With that premise in mind, I ask you to consider what it would mean to be a people of

For Unitarian Universalists, curiosity with consequences drives us to constantly another type of curiosity that leads to consequences, that changes us.

The Soul Matters topic for May is "What does it mean to be a people of

Education, Legislative Program and News:

This year our

education, legislative program to First Parish. Climate change is not going

any medium)