Inviting you to learn more about Unitarian Universalism happening now! Join First Parish in Lexington for a special General Assembly worship service on Sunday, June 30th at 10:30 AM. This year’s General Assembly took place in Spokane, Washington, and the Rev. Marta Valentin will lead us in worship. Worship Associate Larry Prusak will guide us in conversation following the service.

This year’s General Assembly was the largest gathering of Unitarian Universalists happening this summer. Come to First Parish on Sunday June 30th at 10:30 AM to hear the closing worship service and learn about the important work of our denomination. Unitarian Universalism and First Parish in Lexington will guide us in conversation following the service.
