A UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CONGREGATION

Tuesday, May 18th 2021

UPCOMING Worship: Sunday, May 23th

"More often than you realize it, the world is shaped by two things – stories told and the memories they leave behind." – Vera Nazarian. Join us in the celebration of stories. Our service will be led by First Parish youth that will include personal reflections and music!

Music: The youth of our church will provide music for worship. Soloists Hayden Herrick and Andreas Padilla, with singer Kiernan Olsen and drummer McKenna O'Hare Gibson will perform Elton John and Tim Rice's beautiful song "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" (from The Lion King). Ella Wheeler will sing Kelly Clarkson's deeply moving "Piece by Piece." And pianist Abby Myerberg will play Norwegian composer Johan Halvorsen's passionate "Passacaglia" (Based on a theme by Handel) for the postlude.

SHARING CIRCLE

May Theme: Story

I like the story about Henry David Thoreau, who, when he was on his death bed, his family sent for a minister. The minister said, "Henry, have you made your peace with God?" Thoreau said, "I didn't know we'd quarreled."

Guest Preacher

DRUUMM Worship & Fundraiser

It's easy to become so overwhelmed by the tragedies of the day that we no longer feel human. We must find ways to return to our present human experience; becoming a softer and stronger human, again. This worship will lift up the DRUUMM community and explore the journey toward our human-ness.

Wed, May 19 @ 8:30 PM ET
RSVP to join

Our DRUUMM Worship & Fundraiser will model our values of intergenerational, multiracial, sacred space.

We are delighted to have the Reverend Mitra Rahnema return as our guest preacher joined by Joshua Long and Nicole Rumeau, Musical Artist.

Our Worship & Fundraiser is an opportunity for the wider world of Unitarian Universalism to connect with DRUUMM and be in community together. The Worship is open to everyone while prioritizing space for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color. We particularly encourage our DRUUMM members in multiracial families and White antiracist allies to join.

Saturday, a beautiful morning! Leaves, branches and debris from the perimeter of the grounds and driveways were raked up, and invasive plants and weeds were pulled. Gardens were cleaned up and some foliage pruned. Lots of good work in only two hours!

Thanks go out to these tireless workers:

Meeting This Thu

Join us for the next of our monthly meetings to explore ways of engaging with people whose political views differ from our own. We hope to share our experiences and updates in the larger group, to gather into Breakout Rooms with smaller groups, and to pass along news of future events planned by Braver Angels. Bring your stories & your concerns, your ideas & your insights.

Memorial Program for Black Veterans

Greetings Friends and Neighbors,

I hope that you'll join ABCL for our annual Black Veterans of Lexington Memorial Program.

Each year we learn a little more about the deceased Black veterans who lived in Lexington and served in our country's military. And each year, we share stories of the deceased Black veterans who have made a positive mark on our lives.

Come to listen, come to share, come to learn.

Summer Cocktails is rechristened and STILL Happening!

Thank you all for your enthusiastic response to our questions about organizing small groups for cocktails in each other's gardens and yards. Some of you were especially positive about the gatherings being for drinks only, because it eliminates complications around food, and some were especially concerned to be able to be in groups only with other vaccinated people. All of us, it seems, are really excited about the opportunity to be together again.

The groups could have their initial gatherings as soon as a date can be agreed upon within each group, and the weather gods favor us with good weather. At your meeting, you may choose to arrange a second get together over the summer. Instead of asking you to choose a night of the week in your signup for these summer events, I will just put you in small groups of 6-8 people, find a host for your initial meeting, and let each group decide when you can get together.

If you would like to participate, please provide the following:

1. The names of the people who will be attending
2. Whether or not you could host your group outdoors
3. Whether you want to be in a group only with other people who are vaccinated

Please fill this Google Form by Sunday night, May 23, and I will try to form the groups, arrange hosts, and email you with the names of your group members by Wednesday, May 26.
